One of the most popular contemporary paper pieced quilt patterns is the dancing dolphin pattern. This pattern features a pod of dolphins leaping through the waves, and it can be made in a variety of colors and sizes.

Materials

- Fabric in a variety of colors
- Paper piecing templates
- Thread
- Sewing machine

- Iron and ironing board

Instructions

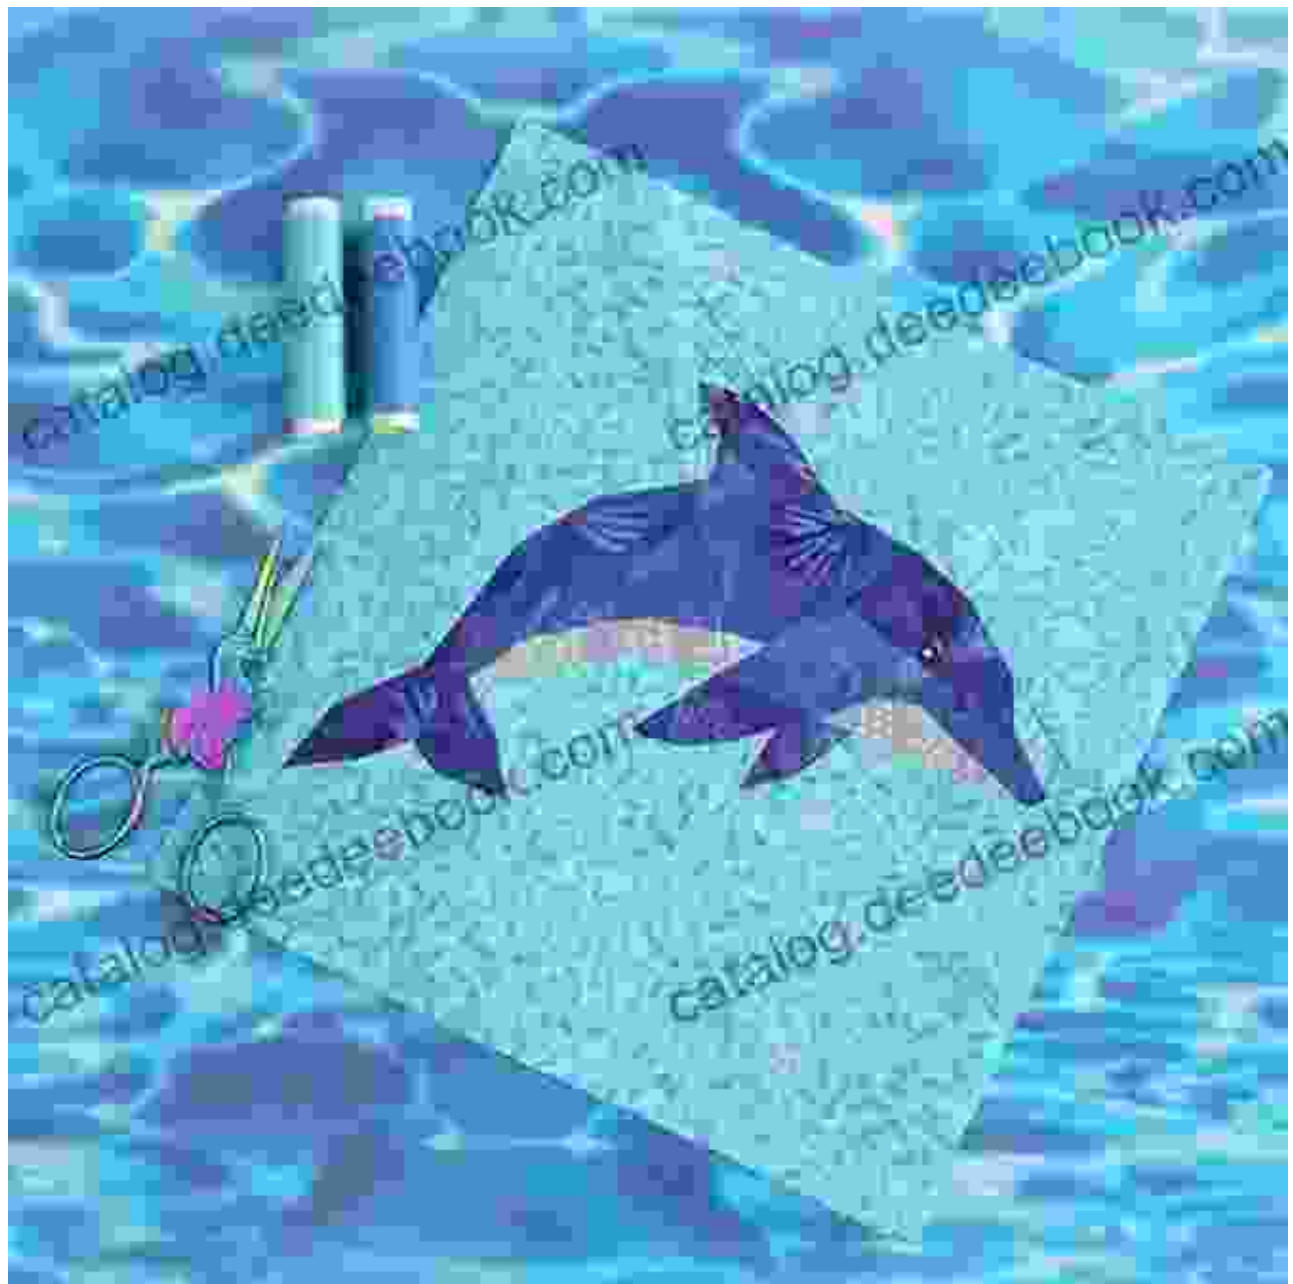

1. Begin by cutting out the paper piecing templates. You will need one template for each dolphin block.
2. Place the templates on the wrong side of the fabric and trace around them with a pencil or fabric marker.
3. Cut out the fabric pieces, leaving a 1/4-inch seam allowance around each piece.
4. Assemble the dolphin blocks by sewing the fabric pieces together along the edges of the templates. Be sure to use a small stitch length and to press the seams open as you go.
5. Once all of the dolphin blocks are assembled, sew them together to form the quilt top. Be sure to match the seams carefully and to press the seams open as you go.
6. Quilt the quilt top as desired. You can hand quilt, machine quilt, or tie the quilt.
7. Bind the quilt with a coordinating fabric.

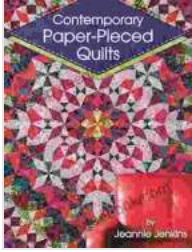

Tips

- Use a variety of colors and fabrics to create a unique and eye-catching quilt.
- Experiment with different quilting techniques to add texture and interest to your quilt.

- Be patient and take your time when paper piecing. Accuracy is important for creating a beautiful finished product.

Paper piecing is a versatile quilting technique that can be used to create a variety of beautiful and unique quilts. The dancing dolphin pattern is a popular contemporary paper pieced quilt pattern that is perfect for quilters of all skill levels. With a little patience and practice, you can create a stunning dancing dolphin quilt that will be cherished for years to come.
