Welcome to the world of plastic canvas artistry, where creativity flows as freely as the waves of the ocean. Today, we embark on a captivating journey to create a Dancing Dolphin Napkin Holder – a graceful marine masterpiece that will transform your dining table into a coastal paradise.

Materials You'll Need:

- 7-count plastic canvas sheet (in white or light blue)
- #4 plastic canvas needle
- Worsted weight yarn in the following colors:
 - Light gray (for dolphin body)
 - Dark gray (for dolphin fins and tail)
 - White (for dolphin belly)

- Blue or green (for ocean base)
- Black (for dolphin's eye)

- Poly-fil stuffing material
- Scissors
- Yarn needle (for sewing the dolphin to the base)
- Optional: Small embellishments like beads or sequins (for the dolphin's eye)

Step-by-Step Instructions:

Creating the Dolphin:

1. Cut out a 3x5 grid from the plastic canvas sheet.
2. Using the light gray yarn, start stitching along the top edge of the grid, creating a 3-row rectangle.
3. Add a row of dark gray yarn to represent the dolphin's fins.
4. Continue stitching with light gray yarn to form the body of the dolphin, tapering it towards the tail.
5. Embroider a black yarn circle onto the grid for the dolphin's eye.
6. Fill the dolphin body with poly-fil stuffing and sew it closed along the edges.

Creating the Ocean Base:

1. Cut out a 5x5 grid from the plastic canvas sheet.

2. Using the blue or green yarn, stitch a 3-row rectangle along the top and bottom edges.
3. Stitch a 1-row border of white yarn around the inside of the rectangle, representing the ocean's surface.
4. Sew the dolphin onto the center of the ocean base, using a contrasting color thread.

Finishing Touches:

1. Add optional embellishments to the dolphin's eye, such as a small bead or sequin.
2. Trim any excess yarn from around the edges of the napkin holder.
3. Ta-da! Your Dancing Dolphin Napkin Holder is complete and ready to grace your table.

Congratulations! You have successfully created a charming and functional piece of coastal decor that will bring a touch of the ocean's magic to your dining room.
