Piano Concerto No. 23 in A major, K. 488, was written in 1786 and is one of Mozart's most beloved concertos. The first movement is a lively Allegro in sonata form, with a beautiful second theme that is often played as a separate piece. The second movement is a slow and expressive Andante in F major, and the third movement is a rondo in A major.

Piano Concerto No. 27 in B flat major, K. 595, was written in 1791 and is one of Mozart's most technically demanding concertos. The first movement is a fast and furious Allegro in sonata form, with a complex and virtuosic piano part. The second movement is a slow and lyrical Andante in E flat major, and the third movement is a lively Rondo in B flat major.

This edition of Piano Concertos Nos. 23 & 27 is based on the authoritative Neue Mozart-Ausgabe, and it includes a preface by the editor, Neal Zaslaw. The music is printed on high-quality paper, and the binding is sturdy and durable.
