

Schools History Project Revision Guide For The Grade Course

Your Schools History Project is a major piece of coursework that will contribute significantly to your final grade. It is important to start revising for your project early on, so that you have plenty of time to research your topic, develop your argument, and write a well-organized and well-written essay.

This revision guide will help you to:

GCSE History OCR B: Schools History Project Revision Guide - for the Grade 9-1 Course: ideal for catch-up and the 2024 and 2024 exams (CGP GCSE History 9-1

Revision) by CGP Books

★★★★☆ 4.6 out of 5

Language : English

File size : 43089 KB

Screen Reader: Supported

Print length : 144 pages

* Choose a topic for your project * Research your topic * Develop your argument * Write a well-organized and well-written essay

Choosing a Topic

The first step in revising for your Schools History Project is to choose a topic. Your topic should be something that you are interested in and that you have some knowledge of. It should also be a topic that is narrow enough to allow you to research it in depth, but broad enough to give you enough scope to develop a strong argument.

Once you have chosen a topic, you need to do some research to learn more about it. You can use books, journals, websites, and other sources to find information about your topic. It is important to be critical of the information that you find, and to make sure that it is accurate and reliable.

Once you have a good understanding of your topic, you need to develop an argument. Your argument is the main point that you want to make in your essay. It should be specific, clear, and supported by evidence.

Writing Your Essay

Once you have developed your argument, you need to start writing your essay. Your essay should be well-organized and well-written. It should have a clear , body, and .

Your should grab the reader's attention and introduce your topic. Your body should develop your argument and provide evidence to support your claims. Your should summarize your main points and restate your argument.

It is important to proofread your essay carefully before you submit it. Make sure that there are no errors in grammar, spelling, or punctuation. You should also make sure that your essay is well-organized and easy to read.

Revising for your Schools History Project can be a daunting task, but it is important to remember that you are not alone. There are many resources available to help you, including your teacher, your classmates, and the internet. With careful planning and hard work, you can achieve the best possible grade on your project.

Additional Resources

* [Schools History Project website]

(<https://www.schoolshistoryproject.org.uk/>) * [Revision tips from the BBC]

(<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/examspecs/z424fr8/revision>) * How to write a good history essay

GCSE History OCR B: Schools History Project Revision Guide - for the Grade 9-1 Course: ideal for catch-up and the 2024 and 2024 exams (CGP GCSE History 9-1

Revision) by CGP Books

★★★★☆ 4.6 out of 5

Language : English

File size : 43089 KB

Screen Reader : Supported

Print length : 144 pages

The Routledge Handbook of Feminist Peace Research: A Comprehensive Guide

The Routledge Handbook of Feminist Peace Research is a groundbreaking and comprehensive collection of essays that examines the intersections of...

Unveiling the Lyrical Mastery of Henri Cole's "Blizzard Poems"

In the realm of contemporary poetry, Henri Cole's "Blizzard Poems" stands as a testament to the transformative power of language and imagery. Through a...