Prepare to be captivated as we embark on an extraordinary literary adventure through the breathtaking landscapes and vibrant culture of Scotland. Immerse yourself in the world of children's literature, discovering the enchanting stories and characters that have shaped Scottish culture and imagination.

Our Scotland Picture Book World Tour is tailored specifically for curious minds and imaginative spirits, offering an unforgettable journey for families, educators, and book lovers alike. Join us as we explore the very places that have inspired some of the world's most beloved picture books, meeting authors, illustrators, and educators along the way.

From the rolling hills of the Scottish Borders to the bustling streets of Edinburgh, each destination on our tour unveils a new chapter in the story of Scotland's literary heritage. We'll delve into the magical world of Beatrix Potter, whose enchanting tales have captured the hearts of generations, and trace the footsteps of Robert Burns, Scotland's beloved national poet.

Our itinerary is meticulously crafted to provide a comprehensive and immersive experience, with visits to historic landmarks, interactive workshops, and exclusive behind-the-scenes glimpses into the world of children's book publishing. Each day promises new discoveries and unforgettable moments.

Literary Highlights

- Meet award-winning authors and illustrators: Engage in lively discussions and gain insights from the creative minds behind some of Scotland's most cherished picture books.

- Explore Beatrix Potter's world: Visit the Hill Top Farm, where the beloved author lived and wrote her enchanting tales, and discover the inspiration behind her beloved characters.
- Trace the footsteps of Robert Burns: Immerse yourself in the life and works of Scotland's national poet at the Robert Burns Birthplace Museum and the Brig o' Doon, immortalized in his famous poem "Tam o' Shanter."
- Discover the National Library of Scotland: Delve into Scotland's literary treasures at this prestigious institution, housing a vast collection of children's literature and manuscripts.
- Attend interactive workshops: Participate in hands-on activities designed to foster creativity and nurture a love for storytelling.

Cultural Immersion

Beyond the literary delights, our Scotland Picture Book World Tour offers a deep dive into Scottish culture and traditions, providing a truly immersive experience for all participants. We'll explore iconic landmarks, sample local cuisine, and engage with the friendly locals who make Scotland such a welcoming destination.

- Visit Edinburgh Castle: Stand in awe of this historic fortress perched atop Castle Rock, offering panoramic views of the city.
- Stroll the Royal Mile: Wander through the heart of Edinburgh, lined with historic buildings, charming shops, and vibrant street performers.
- Savor traditional Scottish cuisine: Indulge in delectable dishes such as haggis, neeps and tatties, and shortbread, while enjoying the convivial atmosphere of local pubs.

- Embrace Scottish music and dance: Attend a traditional Scottish music session or witness the captivating Highland Games, showcasing the rich cultural heritage of the country.
